THE

WESTERN JOURNAL,

OF

AGRICULTURE, MANUFACTURES, MECHANIC ARTS,
INTERNAL IMPROVEMENT, COMMERCE,

AND

GENERAL LITERATURE.

Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts are the basis of Civilization.

M. TARVER & T. F. RISK,
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

MORITZ NIEDNER, Publisher.

THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

VOL. V.

PUBLISHED MONTHLY.

ST. LOUIS:
PRINTED BY MORITZ NIEDNER—OFFICE, NORTHWEST CORNER OF CHESNUT AND THIRD STREETS.

1851.

HC101
.W5

47279
.04

THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

MCN Ja. 29, '04
SEP 27 MAY 110

GENERAL INDEX

TO THE FIFTH VOLUME OF THE WESTERN JOURNAL.

ARTICLES BY THE SENIOR EDITOR.

	PAGE.
Labor saving Machinery,	1
Cannelton Cotton Mills,	48
Southern and Western Interests,	72
Swamp Lands of Missouri,	94
Mississippi and Atlantic Railroad,	129
Western Interests,	143*
Iron Trade of the United States,	143
Culture of Flax for Seed,	213
Love,	280
Growth of Cities in the United States,	283
Ohio and Mississippi Railroad,	332

ARTICLES BY THE JUNIOR EDITOR.

Individuality and Associated Character,	157

CONTRIBUTIONS.

Railroad Land Bills—Pacific Railway, by———	37
The great Industrial Exhibition of 1851, by A. S. Mitchel, Esq., of Mo.	105
Grape Growing in Illinois, by Theodor Hilgard, sen., Ill.	130
Spirit Culture, by Henry Cobb, Esq., member of the St. Louis Bar,	132
Sign Language of the Prairie Indians, by F. W. Prewitt, of Mo.	176
Route to Santa Fe, by G. C. Sibley, Mo.,	178
Improvement of the Maramec River, by ———, Mo.,	191
St. Charles and Iowa Railroad, by B. A. Alderson, Mo.	199
Spirit Power, by Henry Cobb, Esq., member of the St. Louis Bar,	203
An approaching monied Crisis—Means of preventing, by Robt. Triplett, Esq., Ky.,	165
Female Education, by Mrs. Harriet Westbrook, St. Louis, Mo.,	206
Cedar Pyramid, by B. A. Alderson, Mo.,	209
Our Republic, by Mrs. Mary R. Hall, Iowa,	270
Reading and Study, by Edward Stagg, Esq., St. Louis, Mo.,	273
A Day on the Canadian River, by Isaac J. Cooper, St. Louis, Mo.,	346

* The reader will please to observe that the paging in this volume from 143 to 213 is repeated —the 3d and 4th numbers having been paged alike. EDITORS.

Africa, its products and commerce, 171
Alton and Sangammon Railroad, its progress, 64.
Anhydrous Steam—Prevention of Boiler Explosions, 244.
Appleton's Mechanics' Magazine, 210.

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, business on for the month of Sept. 1850, 66.
Bank of the State of Missouri; annual statement for the year 1850, 201.
Boats, see Steamboats and Vessels.

Canadian River, a day's travel on. 344.
Cannelton Cotton Mills, employment of eastern operatives, 48.
Cedar Pyramid in St. Charles County, Mo., 209.
Ciceronian Magazine, 211.
Cincinnati, its imports, 50; exports, 52; value of specific articles, 54; number & tonage of boats built during 5 years, 54; destination of specific articles, 55; comparative statement of steam boat arrivals for three years; manufactures of cotton, iron &c., amount invested and value of products, 57.
Cholera in St. Louis in 1849 & 1850, 264
Cities of the United States, the causes and effects of their growth, 283.
Clark R. C. & Co., White Lead and Oil Factory, 201.
Coins and Bank notes, 77.
Commerce of Cincinnati, 54.
Commerce of the South West, 72.
Commerce of New Orleans, receipts and estimated value of the principal articles from the interior for the year ending 3d Aug. 1850, 121-2; exports to different countries for same period, 123; exports of cotton and tobacco to different markets for 10 years, 123; exports of sugar, molasses, flour, pork, &c. &c., for the year ending 31st Aug. 1850, 124; monthly arrival of ships &c. for two years, 124; comparative prices of leading articles of produce on the 1st of each month for 2 years, 124-5; annual cotton statement of crop, 125; growth and consumption, 125-6; quantity of cotton consumed by home manufacturers, 126.
Commerce of Africa, 171.
Commerce of St. Louis. Quantity received, and prices, of tobacco, hemp, lead, wheat, flour, corn, barley, rye, castor beans, flax seed, hay, potatoes, whiskey, pork, lard, sugar and molasses during the year 1850, p. 192 to 197; imports into St. Louis by the Rivers for 5 years, 198-9; foreign imports into St. Louis; description of merchandize; whence imported &c. for the year 1850, 200. Number of vessels and amount of tonage enrolled for the year 1850, 200. Quantity of wheat received from the Missouri and Mississippi rivers respectively each month in the yer 1850, p. 257. Monthly arrivals of steamboats at St. Louis from the respective rivers for four years, 258. Monthly arrival of steamboats &c., their tonage; wharfage, harbor fees, &c., for two years, 259.
Commerce of Weston, Mo. Exports for the year 1850, arrival of steamboats for 6 years, 326.
Commerce of the United States. Value of the domestic exports of the United States for the year ending 30th June, 1850, 328.
Commerce of San Francisco, amount of Gold shipped from Sept. 1st, 1849, to Dec. 13, 1850. Tonnage arrived—Importations, &c., 329.
Commerce of Canada. Imports into the port of Buffalo for the year 1850, 330.
Cotton, quantity received at and exported from New Orleans for 10 years, 121-2. Monthly prices at New Orleans for the year ending 31 Aug. 1850, 125. Annual statement, 125. Growth from 1823 to 1850, 125. Annual consumption in the United States since 1826, 126. Consumption in the different States, 126. State of manufacture in the East, South, and West, 73.
Cotton Trade from 1825 to 1850, with tabular statements of production, consumption, stoks, prices, Exports to & consumption in different countries, 233.

Education, Female, 206.
Europe, general view of the different States—military and marine forces—revenues and public debts, population, &c., 308.
European and American Railroad, 65.
Exports. See commerce of Cincinnati, New Orleans, United States, &c.

Fair, the great industrial exhibition in London, description of the building, 69. Regulations, &c., 105.
Female Education, 206.
Flax Seed. Culture of flax for seed, quantity of flax seed consumed in St. Louis—quantity consumed in the U. States—quantity imported—prices of flax seed and oil &c., 213, 265.
Flour, receipts and prices, at New Orleans, 124. Quantity received and prices at St. Louis, 194. Quantity manufactured in St. Louis, 262.
Fruit, mode of preserving, 63.

Gas Light. Paine's light—its value compared with coal, 35.
Geological Survey, by E. A. Prout, M. D., 210.
German Society in St. Louis. Act incorporating, 344.

Grape Culture in Iowa, 62.
Grape Culture in Illinois, 130.
Grapes, Native; culture of, 60.

Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad, 63.
Hemp; Culture and preparation for market, 185, 220.
Hemp Growing in Iowa, 330.
Howard County, Mo., Statistics, 327.

Illinoistown, its future growth, 129.
Imports: See title Commerce &c.
Indianopolis and Bellefontaine Railroad, 67.
Individuality & associated Character, 157
Industrial Exhibition, 105.
Interest on Money, 288.
Institute of Art and Invention, 202.
Iron trade of the United States, 143.

Labor saving Machinery, its influence on the social condition 1.
Libraries; history of ancient libraries—statistics of modern libraries in Europe and the United States, 314.
Love, 280.
Lumbertrade of St. Louis, 260.

Madison and Indianopolis Railroad, receipts on, 66.
Manufactures of Cincinnati, 57.
Manufactures in St. Louis, 127, 201; statistical table of the productive industry of St. Louis as shown by the U. S. Census of the year 1850, 261.
Maramec River, improvement of its navigation, 192.
Memoir of the Physics of the Mississippi river, 6.
Memorial of the Evansville Convention, 143.
Metals; precious, coins and bank notes, 77.
Mississippi River, its physics, 6.
Missouri, its population in 1848 and 1850 by counties, 322.
Money Crisis, means to prevent, 165.
Mortgages on Boats and Vessels—Act of Congress, 58.
Moulder's Iron Foundry Association near Cincinnati, 97.
Muegge C., Oil Cloth Factory, 201.

New Orleans: commercial statistics of N. O. for the year 1850, 121.
Nicaragua Canal, description of the route, 16.

Oil, Linseed, quantity manufactured, imported and consumed in St. Louis, 216.
Oil Cloth Factory in St. Louis, 201.
Osage Orange, its culture for hedges, 189.
Our Republic: By Mrs. Mary R. Hall, 270.

Pile Driver, model by F. Lear, 269.
Plank Roads, general law of incorporation in Mo., 335.
Platte county, statistics, 325.
Popular Tribune, 211.
Population of Missouri, 322.
Postal Statistics of U. S., 194.
Posts, history of the establishment of posts in all countries, 295.
Precious Metals, bank notes and coins &c., 20, 77.
Preserving fruit, 63.

Railroads, review of the bills before Congress to grant lands in aid of the Pacific and other railways, 37. European and American railroad, 65. Baltimore and Ohio railroad, 66. Indianopolis and Bellefontaine railroad, 67. Mississippi and Atlantic railroad, 129 and 332. St. Charles and Iowa, 199. New method of ascending steep grades, 268. Ohio and Mississippi, 332. Central Railroad of Illinois, 332.
Reading and Study, by E. Stagg, 273.
Red River of the North and its valley, 176.
Route to Santa Fe, 178.

San Francisco, its commerce, 329.
Santa Fe, survey of route by G. C. Sebley, 178.
Shannon James, President of the Me. University—inaugural address, 162.
Sign Language of the Prairie Indians, 176
Southern and Western commerce, 72.
Spirit culture, by H. Cobb, Esq., 132.
Spirit Power, by H. Cobb, Esq., 203.
Starch from Indian corn, 69.
Sterling's Patent wrought iron alloy. 101.
Steam Boats and Vessels, number and tonage of boats built and arrivals at Cincinnati, 54, 56. Monthly arrival of boats and vessels at New Orleans for two years, 124. Monthly arrivals and tonage of steamboats, &c. at St. Louis in 1849 and 50, 258-9. Number of arrivals at Weston, Mo., for 5 years, 326.
St. Louis, its manufactures and productive industry, 261. Population, 324. See commerce, manufactures, &c.
St. Charles and Iowa Railroad, 199.
Swamp Lands, quantity in the respective States, 94.
Sugar, new invention for manufacturing, 128. See commercial statistics of New Orleans, St. Louis and Cincinnati.

Tanning, improvement in, 68.

Vegetable Economy, 182.
Ware, a new and beautiful article, Bennington, Vt., 157.
Western Africa, its products and commerce, 171.
Western Interests, 143.
Weston Mo., its commerce, 326.
White Lead, manufacture in St. Louis, 201.
Wheat, arrivals at St. Louis, 194, 257. See commerce &c.